Hops, Grapes and History – New Castle County

There's no better place to start your historic pairing than the Delaware Historical Society and Iron Hill Brewery. The Wilmington Iron Hill Brewery is located on the scenic Christina River near surrounding restaurants and shopping. The Society's museum and nationally-recognized research library will provide you with everything you ever wanted to know about First State history. Also, stop to experience the legacy and life of the DuPont Family at one of their enchanting properties – Nemours Mansion & Gardens, Hagley Museum, Winterthur Museum and Country Estate and Mount Cuba Center. Visit the Iron Hill Brewery located in Newark, DE for a new Iron Hill experience!

Bear, Delaware is just a hop, skip and a jump from the Read House & Gardens in New Castle - Delaware's most authentically historic community. The 14,000 square foot mansion was built by the son of one of Delaware's three signers of the Declaration of Independence. Plan ahead and you can even join in for their monthly "Wine and Weed" get together! Then head over to Stewarts Brewing Company for a delicious brew and American fare!
